Prairie City Fiber Festival (PCFF) offers this scholarship to provide incentive for further education and recognition for meritorious work and achievement in FFA. Applicants will be judged on based on their FFA involvement, scholastic achievement, letters of recommendation, and essays.

- PCFF will offer one scholarship annually of up to $1,000. Scholarships are offered from revenues accrued by the annual Prairie City Fiber Festival, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Awarded scholarship amounts may change year to year due to level of accrued proceeds.
- The scholarship will be directly awarded to the recipient's school of planned attendance with an accompanying letter as to how the money is to be distributed for the student. Monies can be used for books, tuition, and/or living expenses.
- Recipients of awards must be enrolled as a full-time student in a Grant County school or legally home schooled in the 12 months prior to the date of application (ie January of the prior year).
- Award recipients will be notified by letter by the end of April in the given year.
- Award recipients will be announced in the PCFF monthly newsletter and will be used for advertising purposes solely by PCFF.
